PRESENTED BY

The Mystic Scottish Country Dancers Annual Presentation of "All Things Scottish"

Robert Burns, born 1759, would be amazed at how loved and alive his memory is. When Burns immortalized haggis in verse he created a central link that is maintained to this day. Many of Burns poems are part of our "everyday" culture. We sing Auld Lang Syne without giving thought as to the author. And when things go wrong, do you spout "The best laid plans.."? Ever wonder what the rest of the quote is?

*The best laid schemes o' Mice an' Men.
Gang aft a'gley, An' lea'e us nought but grief an' pain, For promis'd joy! (The best laid schemes of Mice and Men oft go awry, And leave us nothing but grief and pain, for promised joy!)*

Burns Suppers have been part of Scottish culture for about 200 years as a means of commemorating our best loved bard. The ritual of supper was started by close friends of Burns a few years after his death in 1796 as a tribute to his memory.

Please join us as we celebrate this amazing poet to whom we owe so much.

We offer Walkers a warm "Thank You" for their kind donation of Shortbread that adds another touch of Scotland to our event.
